

WEDDINGS & EVENTS

For more than one hundred years, Hotel Boulderado has been one of the most famous landmarks in Boulder, Colorado, consistently providing attentive service, Rocky Mountain hospitality and attention to detail for weddings, meetings and events. The hotel has hosted countless splendid parties—dating back to the New Year’s Eve ball that launched its opening in 1909. Thousands of couples have been married on the romantic balcony of the original cherrywood grand staircase overlooking the famous atrium lobby. Groups of every size have taken advantage of the 10,000 square feet of flexible meeting and celebration space. Accommodations comprise 160 guest rooms in either a modern mountain or historic Victorian style and a cozy and meticulously restored 1904 carriage house which sleeps 15. There are three restaurants and bars on site, affording opportunities to bond with each other or immerse yourself in Boulder’s friendly social scene. Guests can revel in turn-of-the-century splendor, right on the doorstep of Pearl Street Mall and minutes from the University of Colorado and other attractions.
