WINTER WONDERLAND & HOLIDAY EVENTS AT HOTEL BOULDERADO

Traditional Holiday Events at the Historic Property Ushers In The Winter Season; On-Property Restaurants Introduce New Flavorful Seasonal Menus

Boulder, CO — (November 8, 2022) — As the temperatures cool and the snow starts to fall, Boulder quietly transforms into a winter wonderland sparkling at night with holiday lights lining the Pearl Street Mall. The historic Hotel Boulderado is no exception as the winter season welcomes festive decorations inside and out, plus traditional holiday events. Locals and guests alike love to gather to watch the arrival of the annual Christmas tree, delicately placed in the historic lobby and reaching all the way to the top of the canopy stained-glass ceiling. Thanksgiving, Holiday Teas, and Christmas events quickly follow featuring decadent menus designed to bring loved ones together. On property restaurants Spruce Farm & Fish, The Corner Bar, and License No. 1 celebrate the change of seasons with new flavorful menus. The historic property looks to the future with License No. 1's New Year's Eve Party ringing in 2023.

Every year Hotel Boulderado partners with Native Nursery in Golden, Colorado to pick the perfect Christmas White Fur tree to be placed in the historic lobby. After it is carefully decorated with hundreds of ornaments, the tree is a sparkling sight to behold and a highlight of the holiday season for guests and locals alike. This year, the Christmas tree will arrive at Hotel Boulderado on November 21st.

Give thanks during Hotel Boulderado's annual Thanksgiving tradition, hosted by the on-site restaurants and featuring seasonally prepared holiday menus at three different locations. Dine on Hotel Boulderado's mezzanine overlooking the lobby with the sparkling Christmas tree. A festive and decadent holiday buffet will be available for $75 per adult, $35 per child (4-12 years old), or free for children 4 and under (pricing does not include tax or 20% service charge) featuring Chef-Carved Whole Roasted Turkey, Shrimp & Crab Cocktail Claws, Pumpkin Pie and more. Spruce Farm & Fish and The Corner Bar, located on the first level of the hotel, will have holiday specials available, along with full regular menus. View the menus or make a reservation online:

Executive Chef Mike Thom has welcomed the colder seasons with a menu that warms from the inside out, featuring delicious dishes that will quickly become classic favorites savored repeatedly. Spruce Farm & Fish is bringing back their daily Happy Hour with food and drink specials available from 3pm – 6pm. Join Spruce Farm & Fish, The Corner Bar, or License No. 1 and explore rich flavors that make the winter melt away.

For brunch, Chef Thom added Gluten-Free Butter Pecan Pancakes smothered with Cinnamon Apples, Pecan Butter, and Whipped Cream. This breakfast staple is available daily at Spruce Farm & Fish and The Corner Bar's weekend brunch. A new vegetarian option has been added to Spruce Farm & Fish's brunch selection featuring the Sedona Omelette with Black Bean, Onion, Cotija & Cheddar Cheeses, served with Tomato Salsa, Sliced Avocado, Cilantro Micro Greens, Home Fries, and choice of Toast. The Chilled Cucumber Soup at The Corner Bar has been replaced with a wonderfully hearty Corn Chowder. Guests will spot five new appetizers, including BBQ Rib Crostinis, Sicilian Meatballs, and Smoked Trout Deviled Eggs, plus four new sandwiches like the Steak & Smoked Shiitake Reuben. Dinner comfort food is up next with Sous Chef Austin Rowen's amazing Gnocchi Pesto. Chef Thom has added his personal take on the Pork Belly Mac & Cheese, Colorado Bison Strip Steak Diane, USDA Prime Pepper Crusted Filet Mignon, and the Paillard Chicken (his favorite). For those seafood lovers, Spruce Farm & Fish has a mouthwatering line-up with the brothy Pacific Cioppino, plus the Blackened Snapper & Crab Etouffee will warm the soul, while the Stuffed Swordfish Siciliana is an Italian delight. The culinary team is excited to introduce these new seasonal menus that will coax anyone out on the coldest of days of the season.
