Seasonal Flavors Arrive On The Menu...

Executive Chef Mike Thom's main inspiration behind the new menus debuting at Spruce Farm & Fish, The Corner Bar, and License No. 1, is the focus on lighter and brighter foods for the spring and summer seasons. He wanted to continue to offer a good number of vegetarian selections, while still being true to our commitment of Farm & Fish centric dishes. The restaurants will be keeping almost all the current entree salads, but, because of the spring season, the intention is to add two more additional, soon to be favorites including a Brie & Cherry Chicken Salad, as well as a Watermelon and Shrimp Salad. Freshness and flavor, seasonality of colorful ingredients, and lightly dressed profiles will be the goals for diners to experience. While the breakfast menu will remain virtually unchanged, the lunch section will feature a new vegetarian Portabella Sandwich with Orange Agave and Avocado. Also, in the sandwiches arena, the restaurants will roll out a unique Grilled Chicken & Smashed Avocado Sandwich. Starters and appetizers, like the entrée salad section, will feature additional vegetarian choices, like a shareable Cheese Board, Crispy Vegetable Bowl, and Wild Mushroom Toasts. Also, look for a new cold vegetarian soup available in The Corner Bar. New entrée additions will include refreshed Sea Scallop and Grilled Swordfish options. The chef team will be making additional fresh pasta this season with house-made Linguine and Angel Hair. For the Farm selections again, light, fresh and seasonal are the intentions behind the new Vegetarian Summer Squash Pasta with Smoked Tomato Sauce and Chevre Cheese. Also, look for a new Mushroom & Shallot Linguine. The restaurants will also roll out a new NY Strip Steak, a new CAB Filet Mignon Steak, and a new Chicken entree.

Come by the restaurants for the new menus in April, relax on the patio with some of the flavorful and colorful new selections, and enjoy some of the best experiences that Boulder has to offer savoring the tastes of the summer and spring seasons.
